

A Nun's Life Ministry Motherhouse Road Trip

Wednesday, March 8,

A Nun's Life Ministry visits the Little Sisters of the Poor on a Motherhouse Road Trip, Wednesday, March 8, 2017, in Mobile, Alabama. The road trip combines social media and in-person events in innovative ways to engage with people about God, faith, and religious life.

A highlight of the road trip is a podcast that is live-streamed (audio and video) over the Internet. Sister Carolyn Martin and Sister Marie Cecilia Fausto of the Little Sisters of the Poor join the hosts—Sister Julie Vieira and Sister Maxine Kollasch—to talk about topics such as discernment, prayer, spirituality, and more. There is also a live chat room where on-line listeners interact with each other and the sisters during the podcast.

People from across the U.S. and many other countries watch the podcast and join the chat room using their computers and mobile devices. The podcast airs at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time (4:00 p.m. Central Time) at aNunsLife.org/LIVE.

The A Nun's Life team uses social media to inform people about the Motherhouse Road Trip and acquaint them with the host congregation. By posting on Instagram, Pinterest, Facebook, Twitter and other social media platforms, the team shares stories, photos, and conversation. After the podcast, the team continues to share the experience online and encourages people to stay in touch with the host congregation.

The purpose of the Motherhouse Road Trip series, which is made possible by a grant, is to help connect Catholic sisters and nuns with an online community that is supportive of vocations and deeply interested in the lives and works of women religious.

A Nun's Life Ministry was founded in 2006 by Sister Julie and Sister Maxine, who are Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary from Monroe, Michigan. A Nun's Life Ministry is a pioneer in combining technology, social media, and vocations outreach in highly interactive and pastoral ways.

A Nun's Life Ministry encourages people to understand their life as a vocation. The mission of A Nun's Life Ministry is to help people discover and grow in their vocation by engaging questions about God, faith, and religious life. To help in this, A Nun's Life brings the tradition of religious life—in areas such as discernment, prayer, and spirituality—into conversation with people's everyday lives.
